Stewardship

The Joy of Giving our Best Gift!

"Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms."

~ 1 Peter 4:10

Beloved Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

I want to take this moment to tell you about stewardship. When I think of stewardship, I used to think what I believe many people think of when it comes to that word; money. Of course money is an important part of stewardship, but it is far from the only part. Orthodox Christian stewardship is a way of life, which acknowledges accountability, reverence, and responsibility before God. The ultimate goal of our stewardship is to promote our spiritual growth and strengthen our faith. Stewardship calls us to give of ourselves to God in three key ways: Time, Talent, and of course, Treasure.

Giving our Time to God through prayer and participation in the holy sacraments are the foundation of our stewardship. God has given us the gift of life and the will to decide what to do with the time we have on this earth. I know many of us have obligations. We all lead busy lives, and the time in the days, weeks, and months of the year gets eaten up by the many different things we choose to do with it. How often do you choose God? Giving our time to God can come in many forms: attending Divine Liturgy on Sundays, participating in the Sacraments, participating in church ministries, reading the Bible, and personal prayer are just a few of the ways that we can give our time to God.

Stewardship

Giving our Talent to God through service to the church can allow us to strengthen our bonds of stewardship to each other as a community. God has gifted all of us with abilities, and our church and community thrives when we use those abilities to further God's plan. Oftentimes our abilities are used for personal gain, but how often do we use those abilities to benefit others? Talents can come in many forms, and we need to ask ourselves how our talents can best serve the church. What skills do we have that others may not? How can those skills be best used to serve God? Are there needs in our parish or community that may benefit from our talents? These are questions we need to ask ourselves.

And finally, treasure. Giving our treasure to God allows His Church and its ministries to thrive and grow. Times are hard. For everyone. Groceries are more expensive. Gas prices rise. Bills get harder to pay. The same is true for the church. For years our church has received around $300,000 in stewardship money from parishioners. And while this may have been a good thing years ago, over the years expenses have continued to rise but our stewardship has remained the same. This year our church has reached a critical point. If you weren't able to attend the fall parish assembly a few months ago, you may not have seen the budget that was put together by the Parish Council. In it, the Parish Council budgeted an income of $300,000 from stewardship. A reasonable amount given the history of stewardship at this church. However, given our planned expenses for the 2026 year, that would put us in a deficit of over $130,000. That does not put the church in a place to thrive and grow.

Stewardship

As we begin a new year, I invite you to reflect on what Stewardship means to you. Where is God calling you to serve? How is He asking you to use the gifts that He's placed in your hands? Our church is a beacon of light in the community. Let's do what we can to help it grow and thrive.

As you reflect on your stewardship, and how you give your time, talent and treasure to God, I challenge you this year to give a little more. If you come to church once a month, come twice a month. If you pray once a day, pray two times a day. If you serve in one ministry, consider serving in another. Look for new ways your talents can be used for God. And of course, if you give some treasure, consider giving a little more.

With joy and love in Christ,

Paolo Mariani, on behalf of the Stewardship Team.

Stewardship
Card

While any donation is always appreciated, please consider filling out a Stewardship Card. By filling one out, you can help our church plan for the year ahead. Remember, filling out the Stewardship Card does not tie you to that pledged amount, nor do you get punished for not meeting your pledged amount. We all fall on hard times. You can always reach out to the stewardship committee to adjust your pledge. Click “Stewardship Card” or scan the QR code to the left to fill out the Stewardship Card.

To donate without filling out a Stewardship Card, use the QR code or click on “Donate” to the right.
